WABASH EXPRESS. NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

On Monday next the 2nd session of the 36th Congress, of the U.S. will assemble in Washington City. The Legislatures of many of the States will assemble during the months of December and January, and from now until the 4th of March the news from all portions of the Union, and especially from the seat of the Federal Govern ment, and the Capitol of our own State will be looked for with intense anxiety, Now is the proper time to subscribe for the Wabash Express. Our facilities for receiving news from all parts of the country are equal to those of any of our cotemporaries, and we will be able to lay before our readers by 7 o'clock each morning, an account of every important transaction which occurs Mountains, up to 12 o'clock the night pre vious. We will give full Congressional proceedings, as well as proceedings of our State Legislature. We propose, to devote more attention to the collation of all important news received in our exchanges phrase- a very "big brick." and lay before our readers at the earliest moment all items of general interest, as soon as possible, after their occurrence. morning for all sorrounding towns and an abundance of everything necessary for the peace and dignity of the State of Indipost offices, and will be the earliest source of news to the people of the surrounding have teemed with the rich bounties of a tality of Sheriff Conner, to await the pleascountry. A Pleasant Time.

We have never enjoyed a visit to any place with more delight than that to Ind ianapolis last week, and we have never seen so much good feeling and beartfelt enjoyment crowded into the space of three dnys, as we witnessed among the large crowd of people, from all parts of the need. The Governor of our State has sng-were Hon. Jno. G. Davis, and Wm. G: Cof State who were there assembled.

Joy and gladness seemed to be the prevailing sentiment the sole desire of all parties, and the object of each seemed to be to enhance his own and the enjoyment of each one by whom he was surrounded. The meeting of the Grand Encampment respond to the call in the spirit of use city is two hours.

Constipation or Costiveness. No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to s so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as Costiveness. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentry habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and DRY GOODS, dangerous discases, and unless early erad icated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Files and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malignant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentry, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named or girate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive
